Dear Kathy:

This letter is to outline the conversation and our understanding with regard to videotaping the events sponsored by ZAMI on Saturday February 19th and Sunday February 20th.

ZAMI agrees to compensate you a total of $100 for this service, and further agrees that you will provide ZAMI with the completed videotapes after each event. ZAMI will compensate you $50 each evening after videotaping is completed upon receipt of each tape.

We thank you for providing this service. We acknowledge and deeply appreciate your continued support.

In sisterhood and community spirit,

Mary Anne Adams
Executive Director

and ears open so that I can let you in when you arrive. (We have a GLOBE business meeting in the room directly to the left of the entrance prior to your talk, so you can tap on the glass to get my attention if I am not at the door to let you in.)

I'm looking forward to meeting you and hearing about ZAMI on the 7th.

Mary Anne:

Thank you to you and other ZAMI board members for agreeing to talk at our June CDC GLOBE meeting. I see that India gave the location as 26 Executive Park - This is incorrect - We meet in Building 16, Executive Park.

Your talk is scheduled from 6:00 to 6:45 p.m.

All routes to Executive Park are rather congested at this time of day, but here are directions:

>From I-85:
* Take the North Druid Hills Turnoff, and turn right onto North Druid Hills if coming from the South, or left onto North Druid Hills if coming from the north (so that you are heading east towards Briarcliff Road).
* Turn right into Executive Park Drive at the first traffic lights.
* Continue along Executive Park Drive as it goes around a curve.
* Take either the first or second turn to the left AFTER the curve, just before Executive Park Drive ends at Sheridan Drive.
* Go past Building 14.
* Building 16 is behind Building 14 and will be on your right if you take the first turn, or your left if you take the last turn.

>From Briarcliff Road south of North Druid Hills Road:
* Head north on Briarcliff Road towards North Druid Hills Road.
* Turn left into Sheridan Drive at the first traffic light after Briarcliff crosses La Vista (by the gas station).
* Turn first right into Executive Park directly after the apartment complex, and directly before Executive Park Drive.
* Go past Building 18 (on the left).
* Building 16 is the second building on the left.

>From Briarcliff Road north of North Druid Hills Road:
* Head south along Briarcliff towards North Druid Hills Road.
* Cross straight over North Druid Hills Road.
* Turn right onto Sheridan Drive at the first traffic light after Briarcliff crosses North Druid Hills (by the gas station).
* Then proceed the same as above.

>From west of the I-85:
* Cross over the I-85 on North Druid Hills Road.
* Turn right into Executive Park Drive at the first traffic light after crossing the I-85.
* Then proceed the same as the directions for "From I-85".

This covers the main access routes. Please let me know if you need directions from anywhere else, or if these directions aren't clear.

There is plenty of parking directly outside.

The building is not accessible without a key card, but I will keep my eyes

Mary Anne -

Here are instructions for setting up your email program to get your ZAMI mail.

Email Using a Mail Program

If you would like to handle your email through a regular email program such as Outlook Express or Eudora, you can set this up quite easily. Handling your email using an email program is highly recommended because all email is downloaded to your PC. Using an email program also lets you easily access handy features like your regular email address book and existing mail folders.

To set up your program to receive your sandhlaw.com email, follow these steps:

1. Go to whatever options or accounts management panel is provided by the program and choose the option that lets you set up a new connection/account.
2. Choose the option to add a new account. For mail account name, type "zami.org" or "ZAMI" or whatever label is easiest for you to remember.
3. Enter in any user information (such as your name or business name). This will appear in your email in the Send field.
4. Under server configuration, set the SMTP and POP3 mail server as mail.zami.org.
5. If it asks what your incoming mail server is, say that it's a POP3 server.
6. Program in your userid and password. For userid, enter the part of the email address before the @ (for the zami@zami.org account, enter "zami"). For password, enter your password (initially "audre).
7. Choose the connection method (phone line, LAN, etc.) and networking connection (what ISP or other method you're using to connect to the Internet outgoing mail Server

Smtp. service.emory.edu

Outgoing mail server user name
mcdan 04

Incoming
Pop 3. service.emory.edu

Web

www.callwave.com normally).

8. These are essentially all your options. When done, hit Save or OK and you should be set.
9. Your email program should now receive all your @zami.org email automatically every time you check your email using that program. I have this set up at home and it's great because every time I check my email I can check my @metrogirl.com and @abraxis.com at the same time.
10. To make sure your program is working correctly, send yourself an email :)

THE AUDRE LORDE
SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Audre and her daughter, Beth.

November, 2000

Dear Friend:

This year, the Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund celebrated her fifth birthday. We are surviving and walking tall because of your support and generosity. As you know, the fund was created to honor and support outstanding African-American (out) lesbians who attend an accredited post secondary institution in the state of Georgia. Since 1997, we have celebrated the achievements of these remarkable scholars by awarding fifteen $1000 scholarships. This year we expanded our scholarship base to include Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas, Texas, Virginia and Kentucky.

We are understandably proud of our first group of scholars who have graduated from college and are indeed making a difference all over the world. Where are they now?

Virginia Hunt is living in Qingdao, China, teaching English as a second language at a school in a province called Shandong. Donna Hope is attending graduate school at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in upstate New York studying Engineering. She is also conducting research with the Department of Environmental Conservation, which she will incorporate into her thesis research. Wendi O'Neal spends her days and nights organizing workshops around class, race, gender and sexual orientation at the Highlander Research and Education Center in New Market, Tennessee, and Barbara Gibson who serves as Family Advocate at Dekalb County Women's Center to End Domestic Violence just became a foster parent to newborn son, Zachary.

"Acknowledged, our dreams can shape the realities of our future, if we arm them with the hard work and scrutiny of now." Audre Lorde

Your support of ZAMI helps us to make real Lorde's dream of community. This year our scholarships made a material difference in the lives of recipients such as Jessica Jones, a freshman attending Xavier University in New Orleans, Barbara Jackson, studying special education in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Debra Strother working on her doctorate in gerontology at the University of Kentucky, Nina Ricci Wilson, a computer programming student attending Durham Technical Community College in North Carolina, Kalita Settle, a second year student at Spelman College in Atlanta who's working hard to become a lawyer, Efia Miles whose goal is to graduate from Georgia State University in May, 2001and study art therapy in graduate school and Maisha Peterson, a certified massage therapist who chose a social work major at Georgia State University to address issues related to incest survival.

Your on-going support of ZAMI signals your willingness to do "the hard work and scrutiny of now", so necessary for us to transform our futures.

On behalf of our Audre Lorde Scholars, we want to thank you for your past contributions and hope that you will consider giving the gift of education this holiday season. We know that you gave generously last year. Please consider increasing your contribution.

In Community Spirit,

Mary Anne Adams,
Executive Director

The Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund is named in honor of Audre Lorde, former State poet of New York who defined herself as a black lesbian, warrior poet. Lorde is internationally regarded as a significant contributor to the struggle for women's liberation and lesbian and gay rights. Lorde's voice was stilled in 1992, when she died of cancer at the age of 58.

ZAMI is a sponsored project of the Fund for Southern Communities (FSC). Tax-deductible contributions should be made payable to FSC and designated for the Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund. We have enclosed an envelope for giving.
